

Published on OpenChannels (<https://www.openchannels.org>)

OC Overview for the week of 16 September 2019

A warming Puget Sound means dying kelp, researchers say. That hurts orcas and salmon https://tdn.com/news/state-and-regional/a-warming-puget-sound-means-dying-kelp-researchers-say-that/article_53f3de04-273d-527a-9116-812967636455.html

Survey begins of damaged deep sea coral off Scotland

<https://www.bbc.com/news/uk-scotland-highlands-islands-49688504>

Deep-Sea Octopus Entralls Scientists With Otherworldly ‘Show’

https://www.huffpost.com/entry/octopus-billowing-arms-video_n_5d7d22ffe4b03b5fc88494ab

Scientists will face polar bears, isolation and darkness on Arctic mission to study climate change

<https://www.cbsnews.com/news/scientists-will-face-polar-bears-isolation-darkness-on-arctic-mission-to-study-climate-change/>

New coral growths found at damaged deep sea reef off Scotland

<https://www.bbc.com/news/uk-scotland-highlands-islands-49727181>

Shark pups lose gains in stressed environments

<https://www.sciencedaily.com/releases/2019/09/190917104503.htm>

Filipino Scientists Have Invented a Device to Monitor Coral Without Getting in the Water

https://www.vice.com/en_in/article/wjwxvq/filipino-scientists-invent-device-monitor-coral-without-diving-water

Reef protection laws pass despite industry attacks on their scientific basis

<https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2019/sep/19/reef-protection-laws-pass-despite-industry-attacks-on-their-scientific-basis>

Student invents biodegradable plastic bag made from fish guts

<https://www.theargus.co.uk/news/17911739.student-uses-fish-replace-plastic/>

The Battle Over Fish Farming In The Open Ocean Heats Up, As EPA Permit Looms

<https://www.npr.org/sections/thesalt/2019/09/18/761978683/the-battle-over-fish-farming-in-the-open-ocean-heats-up-as-epa-permit-looms>

Source URL: <https://www.openchannels.org/news/oc-overview/oc-overview-week-16-september-2019#comment-0>