

OC Overview for the Week of March 11 2019

Trust more important than ecology to gain local support for conservation

<https://www.sciencedaily.com/releases/2019/03/190313103159.htm>

Protection for high seas is crucial to safeguarding vulnerable coastal communities—new research

<https://phys.org/news/2019-03-high-seas-crucial-safeguarding-vulnerable.html>

Review of noise impacts on marine mammals yields new policy recommendations

<https://www.sciencedaily.com/releases/2019/03/190313143307.htm>

Something smells fishy: Scientists uncover illegal fishing using shark tracking devices

<https://news.mongabay.com/2019/03/something-smells-fishy-scientists-discover-illegal-fishing-using-shark-tracking-devices/>

Scientists see improving ocean conditions off West Coast, but ‘we are not quite out of the woods yet’

<https://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/environment/scientists-see-improving-ocean-conditions-off-west-coast-but-we-are-not-quite-out-of-the-woods-yet/>

Arctic change has widespread impacts

<https://phys.org/news/2019-03-arctic-widespread-impacts.html>

New Warnings on Plastic’s Health Risks as Fracking Industry Promotes New ‘Plastics Belt’ Build-Out

<https://www.desmogblog.com/2019/03/05/health-risks-fracking-shale-industry-plastics-belt-ohio-river-valley>

14-foot fish spotted in river, giving hope to vanished giant’s return

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/environment/2019/03/14-foot-atlantic-sturgeon-fish-hudson-river-endangered-species/>

Indian Ocean exploration makes historic undersea broadcast

<https://abcnews.go.com/Technology/wireStory/indian-ocean-exploration-mission-makes-historic-broadcast-61622625>

Bumble Bee Foods is tracking seafood across global supply chains through blockchain

<https://www.freightwaves.com/news/blockchain/bumble-bee-foods-is-tracking-seafood-across-global-supply-chains-through-blockchain>

Reawakening Kaloko

<https://www.hakaimagazine.com/features/reawakening-kaloko/>

Where Will Your Plastic Trash Go Now That China Doesn’t Want It?

<https://www.npr.org/sections/goatsandsoda/2019/03/13/702501726/where-will-your-plastic-trash-go-now-that-china-doesnt-want-it>

What a Fluke! Man Ends Up in Whale's Mouth

<https://www.livescience.com/64969-whale-almost-swallows-man.html>

Source URL: <https://www.openchannels.org/news/oc-overview/oc-overview-week-march-11-2019#comment-0>