

Published on OpenChannels (<https://www.openchannels.org>)

---

OC Overview for the Week of November 19 2018

4 takeaways from a global look at biodiversity

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/environment/2018/11/tracking-global-progress-to-protect-biodiversity/>

Peru shares its fisheries surveillance data with the world

<https://news.mongabay.com/2018/11/peru-shares-its-fisheries-surveillance-data-with-the-world/>

The science of self-care: How climate researchers are coping with the U.N. report

<https://grist.org/article/the-science-of-self-care-how-climate-researchers-are-coping-with-the-u-n-report/>

Pod-cast: New app streams whale songs for web users in real time

<https://news.mongabay.com/wildtech/2018/11/pod-cast-new-app-streams-whale-songs-for-web-users-in-real-time/>

Local drivers of amplified Arctic warming

<https://phys.org/news/2018-11-local-drivers-amplified-arctic.html>

Surge in marine refuges brings world close to protected areas goal

<https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2018/nov/19/marine-reserves-size-protected-wildlife-five-times-bigger-usa>

The Orca Task Force finally has a plan. Will it work?

<https://crosscut.com/2018/11/orca-task-force-finally-has-plan-will-it-work>

---

Source URL: <https://www.openchannels.org/news/oc-overview/oc-overview-week-november-19-2018#comment-0>